Damian Horton joins Arrow Capital Partners

Arrow Capital Partners, the investor and operator of real estate in Asia-Pacific and Europe, has appointed Damian Horton as a Partner in its Australian business.

Damian will be responsible for property operations, asset management, leasing and due diligence across Arrow's various investment initiatives, including for its $1 billion Strategic Industrial Real Estate (SIRE) vehicle in Australia.

Damian joins from PWC's Real Estate Advisory practice in Sydney and having had a distinguished career in real estate investing including as Head of Property at Cromwell and at Valad in both Europe and Australia.

Martyn McCarthy, Managing Partner at Arrow Capital, said:

"The Arrow partners have a long working relationship with Damian in Australia and Europe. We are delighted to welcome him to our team as we accelerate the pace of investments including in our urban logistics vehicle and in a range of other investment opportunities across Australia. Damian has an outstanding track record in our focus areas of urban logistics, development, office repositioning and office assets with good cash flow in defensive locations."

Damian Horton, Partner at Arrow Capital, said:

"Arrow has built a hugely impressive track record over the last five years. I am delighted to be joining a team of people with whom I have worked closely over many years, with a culture focused on operational real estate expertise, particularly at a time when Arrow is accelerating the deployment of its urban logistics venture in a sector with such strong investment dynamics."
